

The 1976 Hometown Sketchbook Calendar is our 10th anniversary edition. The proceeds from this calendar will go to Norton-Children's Hospital and the Cerebral Palsy School.

Since 1967 the Younger Women's Department of the Crescent Hill Woman's Club has published a calendar which features fourteen original pen and ink sketches of various Louisville landmarks.

The Hometown Sketchbook Calendar has been a very popular and successful endeavor, and one which the entire community can be proud. We have watched our sales grow from an initial order of 1,000 copies to as many as 7,000 this past year. Our contributions to charity have increased accordingly — from an original donation of $450 to $5,000 in 1975.

Through the sale of the 1975 Calendar, Norton-Children's Hospital received $4,000 for the purchase of an Anesthesia machine to be used for surgical patients.

The Kidney Foundation will use a donation of $1,000 to operate their Drug Bank Program. This program provides approved medication at the lowest possible cost to kidney patients who are on prolonged medication.

We wish to thank our contest judges, student contestants, and patrons whose continued support has made possible the Hometown Sketchbook Calendar.

The original pen and ink sketches used in this calendar are the winning entries in the art contest sponsored by the Younger Women's Department of the Crescent Hill Woman's Club. Participants in the contest were students from public and parochial high schools in the greater Louisville area. The judges for the contest were: John B. Alwes, Naegale Advertising; Mrs. Mary Ann Currier, Louisville School of Art; Mr. Fred Merida, Frame House Gallery; Mr. Franklin Page, Speed Museum; Mr. Stephan Hall, Louisville Magazine. The sketches and their artists appear in this order:
